TITLE: City code

DATES: 2002-

ARRANGEMENT: Numerical by code number

DESCRIPTION:

Municipalities are empowered to "revise, codify, and compile...and to publish in book, pamphlet, or looseleaf form all ordinances." In 2004 Spring City published the "City Code of Spring City," which is a complete simplified code of all general or permanent city ordinances (See Utah Code, 10-3-707 [1977]). Spring City Code addresses the following: administration, committees and commissions, business and license regulations, public health and safety, motor vehicles and traffic, public ways and property, utilities, building and zoning and subdivision regulations, and impact fees. These books contain the legislative action of city council to regulate, require, prohibit, govern, control, or supervise any activity, business, conduct, or condition authorized by UCA 10-3-701 to 715 (1977). An ordinance includes a number, a title, preamble, an ordaining clause, the body or subject of ordinance, when applicable, penalty of violation, effective date, signature of mayor or acting mayor, and municipal seal.

TITLE: Interment register

DATES: 1892-

ARRANGEMENT: Chronological by date.

DESCRIPTION:

This series documents burials in the Spring City Cemetery in the form of an historic, century-old, handwritten ledger maintained by the sexton. Ledger columns include the name of the deceased, their dates of birth and death, parents' names, the location of the grave, the cause of death, and the name of the doctor or medical attendant at the time of death. Not all columns are completed for all individuals. Cemetery block and lot numbers have been recorded since 1892. Recording individual grave space/site information was sporadic from the mid-1970s until it became standard practice in 1999. A partial list of sextons and their beginning dates of service is written on the inside of the front cover. The April 1991 filming covers deaths through March 8, 1991 (pages 112-113); the August 2009 filming includes deaths through April 16, 2009 (pages 124-125).
